All orders postponing or canceling the sale must be filed with the clerk of court no later than 5:00 p.m. two business days before the sale date. Counsel for plaintiff must be certain that the clerk has the original proof of publication of the notice of sale on file no less than three business days before the sale date. The failure of plaintiff's counsel to properly and timely publish the notice of sale may result in sanctions against the plaintiff, plaintiff's counsel individually, and the law firm representing the plaintiff. If the original proof of publication of the notice of sale

6. Costs. Plaintiff shall advance all subsequent costs of this action and shall be reimbursed for them by the Clerk if plaintiff is not the purchaser of the property for sale, provided, however, that the purchaser of the property for sale shall be responsible for the documentary stamps payable on the certificate of title. The clerk shall receive the service charge imposed in Section 45.031, Florida Statutes.

7. Distribution of Proceeds. On filing the certificate of title, the clerk shall distribute the proceeds of the sale, so far as they are sufficient, by paying: first, all of the plaintiff's costs; second, documentary stamps affixed to the certificate; third, plaintiff's attorneys' fees; fourth, the total sum due to the plaintiff, less the items paid, plus interest at the rate prescribed in paragraph 2 from this date to the date of the sale; and by retaining any remaining amount pending the further order of this court.

8. Right of Redemption. On the filing of the certificate of sale, defendant(s) and all persons claiming under or against defendant(s) since the filing of the notice of lis pendens shall be foreclosed of all estate or claim in the property, except as to claims or rights under chapter 718 or chapter 720, Florida Statutes, if any.
